

Ten Commandments for a Fresh Start

As you know, according to the Bible, God gave Moses his moral law in the Ten Commandments. The commandments are brief and simple yet tell us everything we need to know about how we should relate to God and to one another.

Obviously, my writings are not on a par with Moses. However, as best I can I try to offer you timeless and timely insights to help you get a Fresh Start Now. When seeking to get a Fresh Start Now keep in mind the following Ten Commandments:

1. Thou shalt not rush.
2. Thou shalt not focus on what you don't or can't have.
3. Thou shalt not take a shortcut
4. Thou shalt not accept second best
5. Thou shalt not fly solo.
6. Thou shalt not step on anybody on the way up nor blame anybody on the way down.
7. Thou shall always, always, always try one more time.
8. Thou shall remember that your goal is progress not perfection. "God writes straight using a crooked pencil."
9. Thou shall first, last, and always seek to know and do God's will.
10. Thou shall write thy own ten commandments and let me know what it is so I can learn more about getting a Fresh Start Now.

Coming up with "Commandments" for a Fresh Start Now is easy. Putting them into practice takes moment-by-moment discipline. It takes learning the same truth over and over again.

You can do it. You can get a Fresh Start today. God wants you to have a Fresh Start more than you do. You will never be good enough not to need it. You will never be bad enough not to be able to have it.
